Brothers win 34th Annual Oilmen's

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Brothers Tyson and Darcy Stafford were declared the 2017 Elk Point Oilmen's Golf Tournament champions for the cash prize sponsored by Weatherford and Shamrock as the 34th annual tournament wound up with a banquet and dance on Saturday evening. The two-man scramble format once again proved popular, with a total of 56 teams enjoying the weekend of golf and good fellowship.

Lindsay Jenner and his teammate Dan J. won the First Flight, sponsored by Champion and Stanchuk Trucking, over Owen Gibson and John Regnier, while in the Second Flight, sponsored by Tervita and Classic Oilfield Service, Fernando Borges and Marty Volcan edged out Trent Rowley and Jonny Olsen for the win.

Flight Three came down to a three-way tie between Logan Becker and Derek Severin, who accepted the Newalta and DLM Oilfield Enterprises award, Preston and Lyndon Kmakowsky and Warner Schmidt and John Charlton, with the winners decided by a unique tiebreaker: an indoor putt-off down the stage stairs, the winner being the golfer whose ball stopped closest to a marked target.

Advance vote date set for 2017 municipal election

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point town council has set Wednesday, Oct. 11 from 4:30 to 8:00 p.m. as the advance vote date for the Oct. 16 municipal election. Nomination day is slated for Monday, Sept. 18.

Walking trail

The grand opening for Elk Point's walking trail is now slated to be a low key event, after Minister of Culture and Tourism Ricardo Miranda sent his regrets at being unable to attend an early September event due to previous commitments. A handsome sign celebrating the Alberta Government's major role in the project has been ordered and will be installed at the beginning of the trail to mark its completion.

Thanks for visiting

A three-dimensional exit sign thanking travelers for visiting Elk Point has also been ordered and will be installed across from the welcome sign. Mayor Parrish Tung suggested that Public Works consider the use of composite lumber for sign installation posts rather than wood, due to its long lifespan.

Furnace replacements

Council studied quotes for replacement of furnaces in both the Town administration building and the town-owned trailer at the Elk Point Airport and replacement of the administration building's water heater, and moved to accept quotes submitted by Big M Mechanical. Big M had offered prices with both a 40-gallon natural gas water heater and a 10-gallon electric water heater, and after some discussion, agreed to go with the smaller unit, saving $900 for a total cost of $5,100 plus GST for both furnace and water heater for the administration building and $3,400 for the trailer furnace.

Airport electrical project

Council moved to apply for a 2018 STIP grant for electrical upgrades at Elk Point Municipal Airport, with a copy to be sent to the County of St. Paul, and to send letters to CNRL and Pengrowth asking for their financial support on the project, in response to a recommendation from the Airport Commission.

Bylaw amendment

Council gave first reading to an amended Bylaw

765/17, allowing the town to guarantee a $200,000 loan and $75,000 line of credit for the Elk Point Regional Allied Arts Society, the amendment necessary because the loan has dropped from an original amount of $283,000. The town would only be responsible for half of the amounts, with the County of St. Paul guaranteeing the other half.

Streetlights

Council received an estimate from ATCO Electric for the replacement of three streetlights, including the light in front of ATB Financial that was blown down in the July 13 storm, at an estimated cost of $16,965. Council agreed to go ahead with the replacement, with the funds coming from the Streets operating budget.

Taxes due Aug. 31

Elk Point taxpayers have until Thursday, Aug. 31 to pay their property taxes without penalty, and CAO Ken Gwozdz said the town is "sitting about normal" on taxes paid to date. There is still $218,181.82 in taxes outstanding from previous years, and several properties will go up for tax sale in September if the outstanding amounts are not paid prior to that time.

Wade Poitras and Shaun Clancy were the winners in Xtreme Oilfield and Oil Lift's Flight Four, with another putt-off, this time between Calvin Fisher and Chris McDuff and Myles Yarmuch and Colton Hymanuk, for second place.

The Fifth Flight, sponsored by Scope Production and Sandpiper, was won by Don Anderson and Art Lypka, with second place going to Robbie Tchir and Joe Deschamps, while Flight Six winners Stephen Bannister and Robert Poitras accepted the CRJ and Marksman prize, with Sahil Data and Craig Beattie placing second.

Nine Hidden Hole prizes were also given out, Jonny Olsen with the longest putt on the green on Hole 9, Tyler Warawa with the tee shot not past the ladies' tee on Hole 8, George Hahn shooting out of bounds on Hole 7, Kevin Rudell winning the draw for the Hole-in-One and Substitute on Hole 6, Greg Desaulniers with five or more putts on Hole 5, Brent Becker hitting the right bunker on Hole 4, Trent Rowley winning the draw for the Hole-in-One and Substitute on Hole 3, Brant Evans hitting his ball into the bush to the right off the tee on Hole 2 and Lindsay Jenner hitting the long drive off the fairway on Hole 1.

Golfers and guests were also recipients of a huge lineup of merchandise prizes donated by local and oilfield businesses, as name after name was drawn from the ticket buckets.

Doug Bassett had the pleasant duty of introducing Oilman of the Year George Hahn, and added a number of comments about their long friendship, which started in 1981 when they both worked for Hahn's father-in-law. He related tales of late-night oil spill clean-ups, late games with the B & R Bullets, and George's efforts as an Elk Point and District Lions Club member, which resulted in the establishment of the Lions sign and the annual Moose Lake Walleye Classic, and Hahn being presented with the prestigious Melvin Jones award. Bassett also noted that in 1994, with no children of his own in hockey at that point, Hahn volunteered to coach Elk Point's midget team and took them to provincials, advancing to the semi-finals. He later coached his daughter's hockey teams all the way to midget age.

Hahn was originally presented with the Oilman of the Year award at the Oilmen's 34th Annual Bonspiel in January and at that time, was introduced by the late Jody Lecopoy. On Saturday evening, he paid a brief tribute to the memory of Lecopoy and his co-workers who died in a truck crash in June, before expressing thanks to the Oilmen for another great golf tournament.

Fun from start to finish!

KASSANDRA MOORES
Summer Reading Program Coordinator

This summer, kids were encouraged to discover Canada while helping to celebrate CANADA 150 with Elk Point Municipal Library's TD Summer Reading Program.

The children used their imaginations as they created sand fortresses at the local park, tied dyed their T-shirts and watched a movie in our homemade theatre with popcorn and juice.

We explored our own town by hunting down the local "Slime Monster" that was haunting our community. To do this, the kids had a series of riddles and places we had to walk, in order to finally defeat the slimy blob. Afterwards, back at the library, the children made their own monsters with construction paper, markers and googly eyes; some wrote their own monster story telling how their monster terrorizes towns like Elk Point.

The children also got the chance to have a tour of the Fire Hall, where we got to use the hoses, look in the trucks and tour the building itself. Erin Ritchie came in from the Beaver Watershed Alliance to talk to us about the environment, played games and did some messy crafts with the kids. We also took a bus to Whitney Lake Provincial Park and explored some trails while learning about animal habitats and got to touch and feel the furs of some of the animals we have in our region.

We also had a bus ride to our local Fort George and Buckingham House where we toured the museum, learning about the fur trade and about the local indigenous people in our area and how they survived, as well we braided bracelets and played tug-of-war on stumps.

We also had the pleasure to have Courtney Hebert, Bradley Dubrule, and Jamie Kuzma from the County of St. Paul's FCSS to come in twice this year! We created science experiments with the kids, made silly putty, homemade ice cream, and other messy experiments one time and the second time they visited us they had brought board games, cards and other fun! This included things like Twister, The Game of Life, Jenga, musical chairs and many others.

To end the year off, our last week was full of crazy fun as we went neon bowling at St. Paul's Parallel Lanes and had our main entertainer, SaFire, come. She did a phenomenal performance at the Senior Centre showing us her light up hoops, her judging skills and her sense of humor during the performance. With all this crazy fun and excitement, we decided to also rent a bouncy castle, have a water balloon fight and have hot dogs to end the magnificent summer off with a big bang.

EDITORIAL

Running out of summer!

Hard to believe it, but there are only nine days left of August, and school will be back in before we know it. How can that possibly be, when more than a few of us have barely made a dent in our holiday plans?

It's always amazing how fast those two months of freedom from routine slip through our hands, and how fast we are once again confronted with a list of upcoming meetings, as all the organizations get back to work on keeping this community running smoothly.

Haying season was late but is now mostly completed, and silage cutting is underway on many farms, while the grain crops are turning more golden every day - harvest season is on its way, and farm families will be challenged with getting the crops off while the weather cooperates. Please, Mother Nature, we don't want a repeat of last year's disaster. One of those in a row is quite enough!

Both rural and town residents will be heading to the polls this fall for the municipal elections, and while some candidates have already decided whether they will run, others are still making that decision. Once their decisions are made, then it will be our turn to decide who to cast our votes for, based on what we feel they can do for our respective municipalities.

It's a season of change, in many ways, and we all hope those changes will be for the better.

Information Night: the right place to be!

recreation@elkpoint.ca
Review Contributor

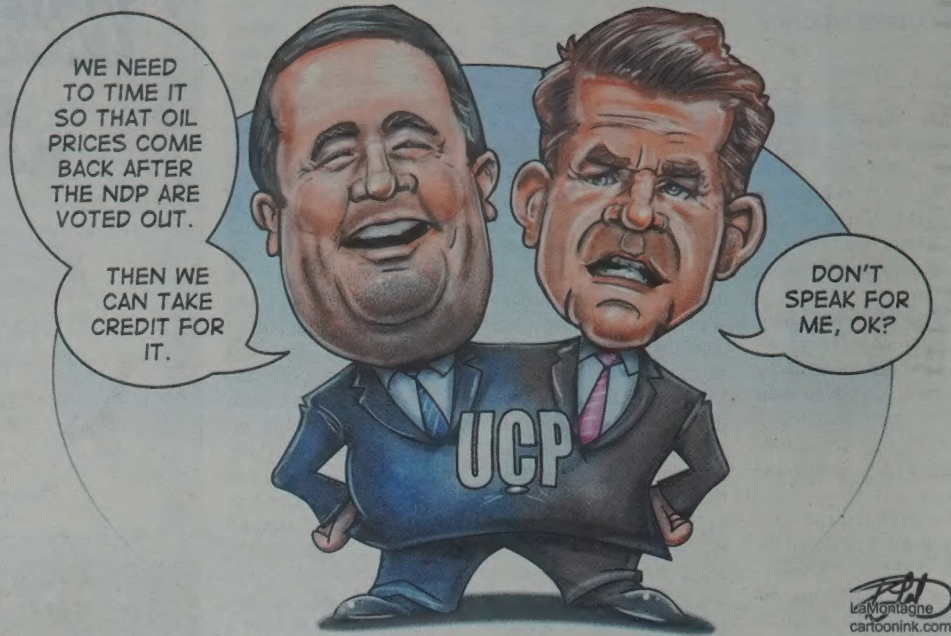

If you're new to Elk Point - Welcome! I bet you're wondering what there is to do and how to keep your kids active. Maybe you're a long time resident and want to try something new or your kids want to get involved in sports for the first time... Community Information Night is where you want to be. Held on Tuesday, September 5th at the Allied Arts and Leisure Centre from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

All the clubs and organizations will be on hand to answer questions and to take registrations. The Town of Elk Point, and some representatives, including me will be there as well. Please stop by our booth and let me know what you would like to see in terms of recreation in town.

Did you know.... in the last year the Rec Department has assisted in starting the Pickleball Club and the Nordic Pole Walking Group? We've also compiled an email list of the non-profit organizations in our community. With that list we send out valuable information on grants that are available to those groups.

If you have an idea for a Rec group, whether that's a physical activity style group or a creative or intellectual style group - let me know. I'd love to help you launch it and get the interest you need. Tip: If you are interested in it, chances are someone else in the community is as well and it only take an introduction to get a group going!

If you're unable to attend Information Night and want to talk, email recreation@elkpoint.ca or call/text me anytime 780-207-5898.

WAY BACK WHEN...

Homestead descendant reunion, August snow and Oilmen's Golf

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND THE ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF AUG. 21 IN...

1987

Norma Berg topped the Baking, Canning, Fresh Fruit, Flowers and House Plants sections on her way to winning the Elk Point Fair's Grand Aggregate award, while Jodi Vogel of Elk Point 4-H Multi Club created a bouquet of edible garnish flowers from vegetables, Edith Mitchell displayed quilting designs and Billie Milholland worked on two panels of the Elk Point historical mural. Descendants of Rudolf and Emily Ludwig, who homesteaded on Moose Mountain in 1912 marked the 75th anniversary of that event by coming from as far away as Washington, DC and Azusa, California to visit the old homestead.

1992

A sizeable dump of snow sent residents scurrying for their shovels on Aug. 21 when a very early winter storm followed right on the heels of 30-degree temperatures earlier that week. Elk Point learned that Greyhound Bus service would end Sept. 8 due to a sluggish economy, but would not be left without bus transportation, thanks to John Henderson of Quality Time Tours, whose company would offer the same service on the Marwayne to Edmonton run at a comparable price, but for five days a week rather than six.

1997

Elk Point Gas marked a half century in business, with Joe Tredger, part of the cooperative since its earliest days, accepting a commemorative plaque from Dick Ziegler of the Federation of Gas Co-ops. Christina Brown made it four Elk Point Fair grand aggregates in a row, winning Baking, Fresh Fruit, Knitting/Crochet/Weaving and the Seniors section as she edged past Lois Yaremkevich and Gisele Pederson, who placed second and third overall.

Elk Point awaited Health Minister Gary Mar's response to the Lakeland Regional Health Authority's revised budget, but was not optimistic after Mar visited Elk Point on a whirlwind tour of the LRHA region and said he was "not in favour of having a hospital every place two roads cross." William John shot a championship-winning total of 159 as 128 golfers competed in 28 flights at the Oilmen's Golf Tournament.

Economic development was on town council's to-do list, after ED committee representative Bob Bezpalko questioned the status of recommendations made in the fall of 2006, for improved signage, and a marketing plan.

Earth moving was underway for Elk Point's newest residential subdivision after town council studied three tenders for the development and agreed to go with Nikiforuk Construction Ltd. for the project. Sean Hill of Lloydminster was declared the 2012 Elk Point Oilmen's Association golf champion after a steak barbecue capped off three days of golf action.

ALBERTA INDIGENOUS GAMES AWARDS WINNER - Nicholas Anderson (third from right) was among the award winners at the Alberta Indigenous Games, bringing home a Circle of Courage award as well as the gold medal in golf.

Great golf season for Nicholas Anderson

Review Contributor

You could say Nicholas Anderson's golf game is on the right course. The 16 year-old Elk Point product has been taking golf seriously for a year and a half. His first year was filled with learning curves, but he has shown steady progress.

Anderson loves to split his year into two definitive seasons. As soon as the golf course opens up in late spring, Anderson heads out and starts swinging. As soon as there is ice in the arenas, you can bet Nicholas is ready to strap on his skates.

Entering the summer, he was coming off a provincial run with the Elk Point Avalanche. Elk Point hosted the Midget D tournament from March 23 to 26. The team went 2-2 in the tournament. Anderson excelled in the tournament, putting up five points in three games played.

Nicholas recently won the 2017 Bonnyville Junior Open. The Open was held on August 10, and was an incredible showing for Anderson. He had entered the 2016 Junior Open, and had a rough go in his first tournament. This year things worked out well for the 16 year-old.

Alberta Indigenous Games

This past week, Nicholas was at the Alberta Indigenous Games competing in golf. On the front nine, he worked his way to a +1. The course record sits at a +1 for 18 holes. Things were looking good headed into the back nine, but things got away from Anderson a bit. He shot a +4 on the back nine to finish the tournament at +5. That was good enough for a three stroke lead on second place, and a gold medal.

"I had three birdies, and played alright. I finished five over. The course record there is a one over, so I played pretty good." Anderson says, "[I won] a circle of courage award. I won it for shooting the best score out of all the categories. There's three categories, Intermediate

Nicholas Anderson has no plans to get off the links any time soon. He will be a part of F. G. Miller High school's golf team alongside Parker Allen.

He will also be playing with the Elk Point Midget Avalanche again this winter.

GREGOR, Alice

On July 26, 2017, Alice May Gregor of Heinsburg passed away in Vegreville Long Term Care Centre, at the age of 97 years.

Alice was born on December 19, 1919, at Frog Lake, Alberta. She was 9 years old when her father opened Gregor's Lucky Dollar Foods in Heinsburg. Alice worked in the store for 65 years, until the store closed in 1994. Over more than 6 decades, many customers in the area who frequented the store became Alice's life-long friends. Her dedication and commitment to the family business were truly remarkable. Alice was a founding member of the Heinsburg Community Club, and served as Secretary/Treasurer for many years. In 2009, she was recognized for her lifetime years of service. Alice continued to reside in Heinsburg until 2011, at which time she moved to the Vermilion Valley Lodge.

Alice is survived by her sister Janet Dolan of Edmonton; brother Donald (Janet) of Drayton Valley; sister-in-law Alfreda of Sherwood Park; special friend Doug Wilson; numerous nieces & nephews. She was predeceased by her parents Rudolph & Pearl; 2 brothers George & James; sister Jessie McEwen; 2 brothers-in-law Lloyd McEwen & Jim Dolan; nephew Jim McEwen; 3 nieces Susan Morin, Valerie Krider & Samantha Maynard.

A Funeral Service for Alice was held on Wednesday, August 9 at 1:00 p.m. at Heinsburg Community Hall, Heinsburg. Pastor Kevin Nelson officiated, and the Thiessen family choir sang 3 hymns. Alice's nephew Brendan Dolan gave the eulogy. Pallbearers were Darrell Dolan, Kevin Gregor, Gary Fakeley, Scott Gregor, Dave Forster & Robert Zayac. Interment was in Dewberry Community Cemetery, Dewberry.

Alice's family wishes to thank the staff of the Vermilion Valley Lodge for the kindness, love and support given to her over the past 6 years; doctors and staff of the Vegreville Long Term Care Centre for their care and support; Shane Hanson and Brady Loe of Heinsburg for setting out chairs; the Heinsburg Community Club for the use of and setting up the sound system at the hall; Marg Scott of the Heinsburg Community Club for arranging for coffee for the family. Many thanks go to the Thiessen family for singing very beautiful hymns at the funeral, and for their visits to the Vermilion Valley Lodge, which provided joy and music to the residents, including Alice.

If desired, donations may be made to Haying in the 30's, Dewberry Community Cemetery, or a charity of one's choice c/o 5626-51 Street, St. Paul, AB T0A 3A1. To send condolences online, please visit www.gracegardensfuneralchapel.com.
